Are you interested in learning more about the Self Determination Program?

We are currently providing an opportunity for anyone interested in SDP to take the required Orientation training Online through our Learning Management System (LMS).

All participants interested will self-register and enroll themselves into the course. This opportunity allows you to take the course at your pace.

You can register for KRC's Community Learning Portal at:

You can also view a quick video on how to self register at:
